She also enjoyed reading, music, watching Survivor and Big Brother spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren, when time allowed. Carol was a faithful servant and her Christianity was a very important part of her daily life. May her spirit live on in all the lives she touched.

“ Dear Mouse, Calvin, Lu and family, I was so surprised and sad to hear of Carol's death. She is so alive in my memories when I think of her. I can hear her laugh so clearly because, when I knew her, she was always laughing! I have fond memories of our days in Bagley and the fun we use to have. I hope your memories help you through this difficult time. Take care, Theresa

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. Carol was always a kind person who loved life and loved helping people. Even though we did not see much of each other when we did we would always talk and laugh about things. She will be missed.
