“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences to Dan's family. I got to know Dan when I was a little girl, in Naytahwaush, where he and my dad, Jimmie Barnick, were friends. I remember Dan as a kind and gentle man.

May God's blessings and love surround you at this difficult time.

Remember the memories of Dan and smile, talk to him and he will hear you, as he will always be with you. With My Deepest Sympathies, Tami Barnick
